

New business and building projects set to get under way in Cairns in 2019

Alicia Nally, The Cairns Post

November 20, 2018 11:12am

Subscriber only

NewsEngage

ENGAGE WITH MORE CUSTOMERS
THAN EVER BEFORE

SYDNEY
HYATT REGENCY
19 - 23 NOV

REGISTER NOW
ONE WEEK ONLY

2. Property Bay has put a deposit on the cyclone-ravaged resort on Dunk Island and was confident the deal would settle shortly. Property Bay's more than $500m vision for Dunk Island will take up to five years to complete and include a hotel, villas, a golf course and a new runway capable of welcoming direct flights from Australian capital cities, Cairns and Townsville.

The first stage will start next year and will cost $155m.

📷 Dunk Island tourism resort that's fallen into disrepair after Cyclone Yasi. Picture: Wesley Monts